Thoughts, For A New Year

As the calendar slips to a New Year, we have the chance to pause and reflect on our lives. Please don't get bogged down and stuck on rehearsing past failures of yester year. That often becomes a rabbit hole that literally leads nowhere. Instead, assess our past actions and if need be, set new goals for the months ahead. Sometimes in our most difficult and trying times, maybe it is a good time to test these simple words of the Lord, "Be Still and Know That I am God."
